Dear Henry,

As you know, I am involved with Accor Hotels and I have had some experience in hospitality and F & B.

I felt that I should write to you to compliment you and your staff on your restaurant's honesty in atmosphere and food presentation. I think that your restaurant is living proof that it can be achieved without exotic decor and sauces.

We hope to visit you again on our annual visit to Milan in January, 2005.

Best wishes,

MAX BECK
